Something Stupid
                     G6
                 G
like I love you
STRING SOLO
                G6 Am D7 Am D7 G G6 G
          G
     G6
         Am
   D7
    G
                      G9
                                               G9
                                 G
The time is right your perfume fills my head the stars get Cm6
and on the nights so blue
                               Am
                                              D7
And then I go and spoil it all by saying something stupid
              D#
like I love you
  G
I love you
            D#
I love you
